

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

DR. A. WILKES SMITH,
Dental Surgeon.

PRACTICE LIMITED TO DENTISTRY.

OFFICE—Smith Building, Main Street.
Office hours, 9:30 to 12:30 M.; 1:30 to 4:30 P. M.

J. C. MORGAN, D. D. S.

OFFICE—Main street, over Madison National Bank, Richmond, Ky.
June 22d

DR. J. M. POYNTZ,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

OFFICE: Second street, next to White's Drug Store.

G. W. EVANS, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

OFFICE: Second street.

DRS. TAYLOR & ASHE,

Practitioners in Medicine and Surgery,

RICHMOND, KY.

OFFICE: Second street, over Dykes' Grocery Store.

DR. JOHN M. FOSTER,

MAIN STREET,

Next door to Lusk's—Up stairs.

Residence at Cor. Main and Tates Creek Avenue.

June 22d

DR. PHIL ROBERTS

Offers his professional services to the public.

Office in drug store on lower Main Street, Richmond, Ky.

July 27-ly.

DR. U. C. AMBROSE,

PHYSICIAN

FORD, KY.

Office hours 2 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

June 22d

W. T. SEXSMITH, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

WHITE HALL, KY.

Offers his professional services to the public.

Aug. 17-ly

M. C. HEATH, J. F. CORNELISON,

HEATH & CORNELISON,

Practicing Physicians,

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY,

offer their professional services to the public.

January.

DR. GILES HARRIS,

SPEEDWELL, KY.

Offers his professional services to the public.

Jan. 17.

DR. S. M. LETCHER,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

—RICHMOND, KENTUCKY—

Office on First Street.

Jan. 17.

H. W. BRIGHT, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

RICHMOND, KY.

OFFICE: Second street, next door to White's Drug Store.

Special attention given to Microscopic and Chemical examinations of tissues and fluids of the human body.

25 June.

DR. C. S. HOLTON,

Homeopathic Physician and Surgeon,

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY.

Office—Main Street, over D. M. Bright's Office hours, 9:30 to 11:30 A. M., 2:30 to 4:30 P. M.

Special attention given to diseases of women and all difficult chronic cases.

Patients treated at a distance, and Homeopathic medicines sent to any address.

May 10-ly.

DR. H. R. GIBSON,

Practitioner in Medicine & Surgery

51 50 RED HOUSE, KY.

DR. T. J. FAIN,

UNION CITY, KY.

Offers his professional services to the public. Office at Powell's store.

12.

PARRISH & TURNER,

Attorneys at Law,

RICHMOND, KY.

Special attention given to abstracting titles to lands in Eastern Kentucky.

Office in CLIMAX building, S. E. Corner Main and Second Streets.

June 22d

E. T. BURNAM,

Attorney at Law,

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY.

OFFICE with C. F. & A. R. Burnam, on First Street.

June 22d

J. A. SULLIVAN,

Attorney at Law,

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY.

OFFICE on First street, same as formerly occupied by County Judge Miller.

Oct. 15.

C. S. POWELL,

Attorney at Law,

RICHMOND, KY.

Office on Second Street.

June 22d

A. J. REED,

Attorney at Law,

Will practice in Madison and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals.

Office in Master Commissioner's office, over Circuit Clerk's office.

June 22d

W. S. MOBERLEY,

Attorney at Law,

RICHMOND, KY.

Office corner Main and First streets, up stairs over Ramsey's.

1.

W. H. KELLEY,

Contractor and Builder,

Is prepared with an experienced set of hands to do all kinds of house building and repairing. Give him a call.

May 17.

Dress the Hair

With Ayer's Hair Vigor. Its cleanliness, beneficial effects on the scalp, and lasting perfume commend it for universal use. It keeps the hair soft and silken, preserves its color, prevents it from falling, and, if the hair has become weak or thin, promotes a new growth.

To restore the original color of my hair, which had turned prematurely gray, I used Ayer's Hair Vigor with entire success. I cheerfully testify to the efficacy of this preparation.—Mrs. P. H. Davidson, Alexandria, Va.

I was afflicted some three years with scalp disease. My hair was falling out and what remained turned gray. I was induced to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in a few weeks the disease in my scalp disappeared and my hair resumed its original color.—(Rev.) S. S. Sims, Pastor U. B. Church, St. Berline, Ind.

A few years ago I suffered the entire loss of my hair from the effects of tetter. I hoped that after a time nature would repair the loss, but I waited in vain. However, when suggested, none, I used Ayer's Hair Vigor, and I began to see the result was all I needed. A growth of hair soon came out all over my head, and grew to be as soft and heavy as I ever had, and of a natural color, and finally set.—J. H. Pratt, Sudbury, Mass.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists and Grocers.

4.3.

CO TO

MONTANA

—VIA THE—

St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway.

A MAGNIFICENT

DAILY TRAIN SERVICE!

"The Montana Express,"

WILL BE INAUGURATED

NOVEMBER 10, 1888.

Elegant Dining Cars, Drawing Room

Sleepers, Handsome Day Coaches

and FREE Colonist Sleepers.

WITH KITCHEN AND LAVATORY.

January.

THE ONLY LINE TO

The Three Great Cities of Montana.

GREAT FALLS,

HELENA AND BUTTE.

For maps and information apply to your home ticket agent, to any agent of the company, or

F. I. WHITNEY,

Gen'l Pass. & Tkt. Agt.,

St. Paul, Minn.

20.

New Hardware Store!

CLAUDE SMITH

Desires to announce that he has opened a new

Hardware, Stove

—AND—

TINWARE HOUSE

—AT—

No. 26, N. Second St.

—Armer's old stand.

REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.

20.

PISO'S CURE FOR

CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.

Consumption.

I believe PISO'S Cure for Consumption, Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all other pulmonary diseases, is the best medicine ever discovered. It is a pure, natural, and powerful remedy, and will cure all cases of the above diseases, no matter how long they have been standing. It is sold by all druggists, and can be had of the Proprietor, J. P. PISO, at 100 N. 2nd St., New York City.

Editor, Enquirer, Election, N. C., April 29, 1887.

E. T. BURNAM,

Attorney at Law,

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY.

OFFICE with C. F. & A. R. Burnam, on First Street.

June 22d

J. A. SULLIVAN,

Attorney at Law,

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY.

OFFICE on First street, same as formerly occupied by County Judge Miller.

Oct. 15.

C. S. POWELL,

Attorney at Law,

RICHMOND, KY.

Office on Second Street.

June 22d

A. J. REED,

Attorney at Law,

Will practice in Madison and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals.

Office in Master Commissioner's office, over Circuit Clerk's office.

June 22d

W. S. MOBERLEY,

Attorney at Law,

RICHMOND, KY.

Office corner Main and First streets, up stairs over Ramsey's.

1.

W. H. KELLEY,

Contractor and Builder,

Is prepared with an experienced set of hands to do all kinds of house building and repairing. Give him a call.

May 17.

The Watcher by the Sea

Two hundred years of watch- ing have dimmed her eyes. And over her temples, like snow, the locks once shone with the purple dyes. Of the rich ripe grape in the tree.

She dwells in a cottage high o'erthrown by cliffs that shadow the breakers white, and Christmas, ever it comes around. Still finds her waiting with holy crown.

"It is Christmas eve and the time is past. The waiting and the waiting is over at last. The result was all I needed. A growth of hair soon came out all over my head, and grew to be as soft and heavy as I ever had, and of a natural color, and finally set.—J. H. Pratt, Sudbury, Mass.

As white as the snow that is lying still on the still, white grave below.

"Graves! only the weak and the old for graves! We are strong. We have nothing to fear! Come the grand, good old time of the dancing waltz. That to my beloved my lover brings. My mate and my boy so dear.

"My mate and my red-checked Robbie to-night. Agate in my arms shall meet. And their thick curls gleam like gold in the light. As when they sit at my feet.

"It'll be ten years old when the clock strikes twelve. Our Robbie's the growing old. And it is that my mate and I. Who says they will never come back to me! Ah, God! but the night grows cold.

"The night grows cold, but they'll soon be here. Was that a step at the gate? 'Tis the wind that whistles my soul with fear. 'Tis the wind that whistles my soul with fear. 'Tis the wind that whistles my soul with fear.

"I dreamt—when was it a dream so dreary— I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

"A dream, but it came up the fountains of my soul. I dreamt of my love and there came instead. So sweet and so true, my love came to me dead. Both dead on a single pier.

"With the deep, deep, deep of the salt sea brine. Drip, drip from their locks of gold. To their cold lips came a never-ending rain. Dead dead slapping his boy and mine. As dead as himself and cold.

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1888.

Berry & Davis, Grocers, have dissolved. The small boy has not had so much Christmas as usual.

D. P. Parrish sold a lot in the Parish of St. Louis, Saturday, to his mother for $300.

There are a stockholder in the banks of Richmond, see notice of election of directors.

See ad. of Moberley & Parke's sale of short-horns and other stock and grain near Elliston.

The beautiful old Estill home, four miles from Richmond, is for sale privately. See advertisement.

Mr. H. F. Turner is out on crutches, after a confinement of three weeks in bed from a sprained ankle.

A company has been formed in Louisville with a capital of $200,000 to invest in Waco mining property.

Jack Freeman is making many a soul merry this Christmas. Go see him—he will tell you how it is done.

A change will occur, January 1st, at Hanna Hotel, Mills, whereby Mr. W. G. Chennell will retire from the firm.

Dr. S. M. Letcher will remove his office, January 1st, to one of the elegant mansions in Dr. A. W. Smith's building.

A special drill will be given by Company E. Kentucky State Guards at the Court house, this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Old Folks presented Maj. A. J. Reed, Past Grand Master, with an elegant silver service, at their meeting on Monday night.

Capt. George W. Tipton has bought the old plantation of Winchester, the oldest in the old home place near Leesborough.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give the children of their Sunday-school an entertainment at the Garnett House this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. A. T. Wilson, County School Superintendent, has appointed Mr. W. M. Moberley an examiner in place of Maj. J. Reed, resigned.

Mr. T. Ramsey and family will remove to the residence on Main street, near James Bennett's, now occupied by Dr. Heath, and the latter's family will go south at the end of January.

The Episcopal church and the Baptist church each had an elaborate Christmas tree. The Episcopal church was beautifully decorated for Christmas day, services by Rev. Mr. Wingate.

Colt by Express. Mr. Matt Arbuckle shipped to Staunton, Va., by express, last week, a colt which he had sold for $200. The animal and the colt weighed 800 pounds, and the express charge was $38. This is the second colt Mr. Arbuckle has sold to Virginia.

New Barber Shop. Squire Cobb and M. C. Moore have associated themselves in the new barbering business at 206 East Main street, next to Roberts & Wines' drug-store.

They are both experienced barbers. Their advertisement is found elsewhere in this issue.

Parrish Sale. Auctioneer Bush reports the sale of Mr. John Parrish, near Foxtown, on last Sunday: Milch cows sold $18 to $22; stabling heifers, $16.30; 54 and 55, 65 and 66, $3 per head; horses, $4 to $7; mules, 3-year-olds, $13 to $18; 100 barrels of corn at $1.86 per barrel. The sale was successful.

40th Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cobb, of Red Bank, celebrated the 40th anniversary of their marriage, on last Friday, giving an excellent dinner to a number of relatives and friends. Among those present was Prof. J. Tevis Cobb, of Anderson, the oldest son. Speaking of this marriage, Mr. Cobb said that he didn't feel like a sixty-year-old man, but his wife was scarcely more than 30, but it seemed to him that he could recollect when he was married.

A Scheme. A Chicago picture house sends out circulars saying that they will make you life-size crayon portrait, free of charge, and will show it to your friends, and they desire to introduce their work. You send a photograph, and then you receive a circular stating that you must pay a frame to make the picture look well. A price list is inclosed. When you get the outfit, you don't feel that you are getting all that has been given you, and that you have paid mighty dear for your picture.

Do You Want a Pension? The Three Forks Enterprise says: Mr. L. C. Phillips, of Virginia, the U. S. Pension Examiner who has made his headquarters at this place since the late war of 1861, has been ordered to Richmond where he is now located and where he will probably remain several weeks. He is a plain, modest gentleman well qualified for his position and made a host of friends among our people. Such men as Mr. Phillips are very creditable to the government service and ought to be retained in it as long as they are willing to do their duty. May success attend him wherever he goes.

Not So Bad as Painted. The CLIMAX reported, last week, a man at the Presbyterian church, in which the latter held up a Unitarian as an example of Christian consecration, and stated that Dr. Forman said in substance, that the Unitarians were "not so bad as painted." Dr. Forman assures us that we were misinformed as to the nature of the sentence—"or any other good thing." He says that he knows many good people in the Unitarian ranks capable of many good things. He would surely on the point of consecration.

Weather Signals.

Prof. O. G. Kennedy, meteorologist, hands us the subjoined information concerning the weather signals hoisted every day on top of the University building: Signals hoisted at ten A. M. for the following twenty-four hours: White square flag indicates clear or fair weather.

Blue square flag indicates rain or snow. Black triangle flag is the temperature signal. Placed above the other flags indicates warmer weather, below, colder.

White flag with black square in the center indicates with a wave or a small rapid fall of temperature to below 45 degrees.

When several flags are used they are to be read from the top down. For example: The white flag with the black triangle below it indicates fair weather, colder.

The blue flag with the black triangle above it indicates warmer weather, rain or snow.

The triangle with white and blue flags below, indicates warmer, fair weather followed by rains.

The white flag above indicates fair weather, stationary temperature.

The blue flag above indicates rain or snow, stationary temperature.

The Public School Round Up. Mrs. A. T. Millon, County Superintendent of Public Schools, has issued the annual visitations, required by law, of all the schools in the county. She reports better school buildings than the county has ever had. Six new houses have been built this year. The trustees of 98 districts, and school teachers in every district, there are 5412 white children and 2,569 colored ones, making a total of 8,011, between the ages of 6 and 20, in the county. The per capita, drawn from the State, was $2.05, making $16,422.55 that came to the county from the State. This is $1,646.45 less than the county pays in school taxes to the State Treasury. Mrs. Millon says the teachers are delighted with the monthly payments. Altogether the schools are prosperous, and Mrs. Millon has sustained her reputation for good work.

What the Mourning Sea is Saying. That Charley Moore intends to challenge Bruce Champ.

That Frankfort will soon lose one of her most gifted daughters.

That Central University will win the oratorical medal in April.

That the Authors' Carnival at Georgetown was a decided hit.

That Christmas will come next Tuesday, if the streets don't get too muddy.

That a wealthy West End man has the U. S. Senatorial seat in his bonnet.

That Dick Tate, of O. U. A., and his friends will be paid when the summer comes again.

That Ben Harrison is no slouch, and that Mrs. Harrison is a gem of purest ray serene.

That the chapel room in the new school building is the finest auditorium in the State.

That several additions will be made to the city next spring, aggregating over one thousand lots.

That Mr. Huntington is coming from Chicago to Lexington on his own road one of these summer days.

That a talented and handsome young gentleman of this city is soon to wear a brilliant and beautiful young heiress in Philadelphia.

That a distinguished young Kentuckian will at an early day go to Ohio and claim a beautiful flower transplanted from his own congenial climate, and bring it home.—Lexington Observer.

The Old Doty Tavern Burned. A telegram from Boston, dated last Thursday, Dec. 20th, says: "The old Doty tavern, on Blue Hill avenue, in Canton, was burned last night. The building was a noted stopping place in revolutionary times. Both Washington and Lafayette dined there, and it is said that a rough draft of the Declaration of Independence was prepared under its roof."

The proprietor Doty who gave his name to the ancient hotel was a brother to Azariah Doty, deceased, of Garrard county, and the latter was the father of the late Volney J. Doty, of Madison county, father of the large family of Doty brothers, so well known here. The Dotys are of French origin, and were transplanted to Massachusetts, a branch coming thence to Kentucky. They have multiplied wonderfully as Mr. Enoch Doty, of New York, who is writing a history of the family, has found thirteen thousand of them. Mr. Enoch Doty is the father-in-law of Mr. S. D. Hunter, editor of the "Turf, Field and Farm," the famous horse paper of New York, and Boyle Doty, of this county, has the family Bible. It dates back two hundred years, and gives much information regarding the family. The Dotys are fond of relics and heirlooms. Mr. C. K. Doty has a gold dollar made by George Washington, his grandfathers, and gave him when he was Charles, not the old man was a boy, and he has worn it every day since.

An Incident in the Siege of Lucknow. On the 4th page of to-day's CLIMAX appears a poem entitled "Auld Lang Zyne at Lucknow," written by Mr. C. M. Laustmann of this county. The production is one of considerable merit, although the author is not, all known in the capacity of an officer. We append a letter of a famous poet, written after having read the poem:

AMESBURY, MASS., January 2, 1887. C. M. LAUSTMANN, Silver Creek, Ky.

Thy poem is really good. It has feeling, vivid description, and rhythmic felicity. I have not a copy of my poem, "The Pipes of Lucknow," with me, or I would send it to thee. Rev. Mr. Lowell, has written a poem on the same incident. Thinking thee for sending thy poem, I am your friend,

JOHN G. WHITTIER.

That the readers of THE CLIMAX may better understand the poem, we note the incidents embraced therein.

Lucknow is an important town in British India. Cawnpore is a neighboring town. During the year 1857, the Sepoys raised an insurrection for exterminating the British. At Cawnpore, several hundred men, women and children placed themselves under the protection of an influential Sepoy who had recently visited England and had received marked attention from the royalty and nobility. But he betrayed his trust and caused the entire party to be murdered. A small army of English soldiers took refuge at Lucknow in August, and the siege continued through August, September, October and nearly through November, when a Scottish girl on the ramparts was first to hear in the distance the plaintive notes of a bagpipe, which proved to be the reinforcements, principally Highlanders. The entire party was rescued, and the siege was lifted. The story was Auld Lang Zyne, and the poem is a beautiful and touching story in verse.

Tennyson has written a poem entitled "The Defense of Lucknow."

PERSONAL.

Mr. Perry Carr, of Lexington, was here last week.

Dr. J. Len Harris, of Versailles, is visiting relatives in Richmond.

Mrs. A. Wilkes Smith and children are in Louisville for a month's stay.

Prof. D. M. Sweets left on Friday for Elizabethtown, to spend the holidays.

Mr. Miller Ward was an attendant at the Berry-Cromwell wedding in Bourbon.

Dr. J. C. Morgan went to Dayton, Tenn., last week, his old home, and will return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Underwood, of Stanford, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, near the depot.

Misses May Miller and Katie O'Connor are spending the Xmas holidays with Mrs. R. Green, of Fayette.

Mrs. Green, Ransom entertained the numerous friends of her daughters, in Lexington, Friday evening.

The Francis-Schweinforth Case.

THE CLIMAX gave a brief account, last week, of the action of the Christian church, relative to Mr. L. E. Francis, an officer in that church. This week we give the proceedings in full. The report of the committee is as follows:

At a meeting of the official board of the Richmond congregation of the Christian church, held in the revenue office, November 17th, 1888, the following action was taken:

WHEREAS, After a full conference with Brother L. E. Francis, one of our Elders, we are persuaded that he holds some views regarding one Schweinfurth, of Rockford, Ill., which we regard as a fraud and an impostor, and which views we think disqualify him for the office of Elder, therefore,

Resolved, That while we differ radically from him in his views, we have a kind sympathy for him personally, and our disapproval is in his moral character and not in his views.

2nd. That we think he ought, in justice to himself and the church, to resign his Eldership, and we deem it our duty to ask him this to do, subject to the action of the congregation.

T. S. BRONSTON, J. B. NEWELL, W. B. SMITH, P. M. POPE, THOS. BALDWIN, ELSA ROBERTS, S. S. PARKES.

C. P. WILLIAMSON, Preacher. The committee having filed its report, Mr. Francis answered as hereunder set forth:

Beloved Fellow Members of this Church—I have somewhat to say unto you. I have for thirty-seven years been an officer in this congregation, and have endeavored, during all these years, to be a son of the Lord, in the accomplishing of good for God's people here. But now comes a communication from the other officers of this body requesting and demanding of me that I resign my Eldership—my official relation to you. My reply to this communication is addressed to you—the church.

I love my church and I love my brethren too well to ever think of complying with this request.

2nd. I cannot, I dare not, I will not do so, because God tells me in his holy words: "Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called," and brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.—1 Cor. 7:20-24. I am everlastingly determined to obey God.

In my following and obeying God, I am in duty bound to have respect unto the clearest light which he causes to shine upon my pathway.

Mr. Schweinfurth, who is a rock of offense and a stone of stumbling, is such, to those who stumble at the word of God, I am being disobedient. For he is a teacher sent from God. He is the true and faithful witness. He is the angel of Revelation standing in the sun. He is the man-child of the Christ crowned woman, the wonder in heaven of these things; his words and his life give indelible proof, I love him, as the word of God, I love him. It comes in the fullness of the light of Revelation, which God gave unto him. In him, I behold the mystery of Godliness—God manifested in the flesh. He is fulfilling all the word of God. I receive him. I take him as the word made flesh, as the manifestation of the eternal logos.

In so doing I am true to the word of God, I am true to my brother officers, I am true to my church, I am true to you, my brethren.

A door is open in heaven and I, standing with illumined face, beholding this divine achievement, say unto you, what hath the Lord wrought? and joyous are the words, The spirit and the bride say come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

I am ready for anything that you may do, for I read that in this day when the word of God is revealed, a man's foes shall be they of his own household. I said unto you, that you should not become offended or ensnared.

Today I look toward the ring of a new day, the sun of righteousness, which has arisen, and says: Lo! this is our God, we have waited for him, and He will save us, this is the Lord, we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Now I say unto you I am in your hand, do not say, as seemeth good in your sight. If I go forth, without the camp, bearing the reproach of my Christ, my sacrifice, I do it gladly. But, I go only as I am led out of camp.

By the grace of God, which is in Christ Jesus my Lord, I will endure shame, suffering wrongfully, knowing that the spirit of grace and glory resteth upon me. I, to-day, avow myself as in everlasting allegiance with the Christ of my Bible, whom God has made Mr. Schweinfurth to be.

The God of heaven has visited the earth, and let us out of "Zion the perfection of beauty, God has shined." I say thou art more excellent than the mountains of prey. I say as I have heard, so have I seen, "The Lord is in his Holy Temple, let all the earth keep silence before him."

The church, that has grandeur in its report, and excluded Mr. Francis from the office. In fact, in his remarks, he asked the church to sustain the report.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Perry Carr, of Lexington, was here last week.

Dr. J. Len Harris, of Versailles, is visiting relatives in Richmond.

Mrs. A. Wilkes Smith and children are in Louisville for a month's stay.

Prof. D. M. Sweets left on Friday for Elizabethtown, to spend the holidays.

Mr. Miller Ward was an attendant at the Berry-Cromwell wedding in Bourbon.

Dr. J. C. Morgan went to Dayton, Tenn., last week, his old home, and will return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Underwood, of Stanford, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, near the depot.

Misses May Miller and Katie O'Connor are spending the Xmas holidays with Mrs. R. Green, of Fayette.

Mrs. Green, Ransom entertained the numerous friends of her daughters, in Lexington, Friday evening.

Dr. J. C. Morgan went to Dayton, Tenn., last week, his old home, and will return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Underwood, of Stanford, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, near the depot.

Misses May Miller and Katie O'Connor are spending the Xmas holidays with Mrs. R. Green, of Fayette.

Mrs. Green, Ransom entertained the numerous friends of her daughters, in Lexington, Friday evening.

Dr. J. C. Morgan went to Dayton, Tenn., last week, his old home, and will return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Underwood, of Stanford, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, near the depot.

Misses May Miller and Katie O'Connor are spending the Xmas holidays with Mrs. R. Green, of Fayette.

Mrs. Green, Ransom entertained the numerous friends of her daughters, in Lexington, Friday evening.

Dr. J. C. Morgan went to Dayton, Tenn., last week, his old home, and will return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Underwood, of Stanford, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, near the depot.

Misses May Miller and Katie O'Connor are spending the Xmas holidays with Mrs. R. Green, of Fayette.

The Francis-Schweinforth Case.

THE CLIMAX gave a brief account, last week, of the action of the Christian church, relative to Mr. L. E. Francis, an officer in that church. This week we give the proceedings in full. The report of the committee is as follows:

At a meeting of the official board of the Richmond congregation of the Christian church, held in the revenue office, November 17th, 1888, the following action was taken:

WHEREAS, After a full conference with Brother L. E. Francis, one of our Elders, we are persuaded that he holds some views regarding one Schweinfurth, of Rockford, Ill., which we regard as a fraud and an impostor, and which views we think disqualify him for the office of Elder, therefore,

Resolved, That while we differ radically from him in his views, we have a kind sympathy for him personally, and our disapproval is in his moral character and not in his views.

2nd. That we think he ought, in justice to himself and the church, to resign his Eldership, and we deem it our duty to ask him this to do, subject to the action of the congregation.

T. S. BRONSTON, J. B. NEWELL, W. B. SMITH, P. M. POPE, THOS. BALDWIN, ELSA ROBERTS, S. S. PARKES.

C. P. WILLIAMSON, Preacher. The committee having filed its report, Mr. Francis answered as hereunder set forth:

Beloved Fellow Members of this Church—I have somewhat to say unto you. I have for thirty-seven years been an officer in this congregation, and have endeavored, during all these years, to be a son of the Lord, in the accomplishing of good for God's people here. But now comes a communication from the other officers of this body requesting and demanding of me that I resign my Eldership—my official relation to you. My reply to this communication is addressed to you—the church.

I love my church and I love my brethren too well to ever think of complying with this request.

2nd. I cannot, I dare not, I will not do so, because God tells me in his holy words: "Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called," and brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.—1 Cor. 7:20-24. I am everlastingly determined to obey God.

In my following and obeying God, I am in duty bound to have respect unto the clearest light which he causes to shine upon my pathway.

Mr. Schweinfurth, who is a rock of offense and a stone of stumbling, is such, to those who stumble at the word of God, I am being disobedient. For he is a teacher sent from God. He is the true and faithful witness. He is the angel of Revelation standing in the sun. He is the man-child of the Christ crowned woman, the wonder in heaven of these things; his words and his life give indelible proof, I love him, as the word of God, I love him. It comes in the fullness of the light of Revelation, which God gave unto him. In him, I behold the mystery of Godliness—God manifested in the flesh. He is fulfilling all the word of God. I receive him. I take him as the word made flesh, as the manifestation of the eternal logos.

In so doing I am true to the word of God, I am true to my brother officers, I am true to my church, I am true to you, my brethren.

A door is open in heaven and I, standing with illumined face, beholding this divine achievement, say unto you, what hath the Lord wrought? and joyous are the words, The spirit and the bride say come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

I am ready for anything that you may do, for I read that in this day when the word of God is revealed, a man's foes shall be they of his own household. I said unto you, that you should not become offended or ensnared.

Today I look toward the ring of a new day, the sun of righteousness, which has arisen, and says: Lo! this is our God, we have waited for him, and He will save us, this is the Lord, we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Now I say unto you I am in your hand, do not say, as seemeth good in your sight. If I go forth, without the camp, bearing the reproach of my Christ, my sacrifice, I do it gladly. But, I go only as I am led out of camp.

By the grace of God, which is in Christ Jesus my Lord, I will endure shame, suffering wrongfully, knowing that the spirit of grace and glory resteth upon me. I, to-day, avow myself as in everlasting allegiance with the Christ of my Bible, whom God has made Mr. Schweinfurth to be.

The God of heaven has visited the earth, and let us out of "Zion the perfection of beauty, God has shined." I say thou art more excellent than the mountains of prey. I say as I have heard, so have I seen, "The Lord is in his Holy Temple, let all the earth keep silence before him."

The church, that has grandeur in its report, and excluded Mr. Francis from the office. In fact, in his remarks, he asked the church to sustain the report.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Perry Carr, of Lexington, was here last week.

Dr. J. Len Harris, of Versailles, is visiting relatives in Richmond.

Mrs. A. Wilkes Smith and children are in Louisville for a month's stay.

Prof. D. M. Sweets left on Friday for Elizabethtown, to spend the holidays.

Mr. Miller Ward was an attendant at the Berry-Cromwell wedding in Bourbon.

Dr. J. C. Morgan went to Dayton, Tenn., last week, his old home, and will return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Underwood, of Stanford, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, near the depot.

Misses May Miller and Katie O'Connor are spending the Xmas holidays with Mrs. R. Green, of Fayette.

Mrs. Green, Ransom entertained the numerous friends of her daughters, in Lexington, Friday evening.

Dr. J. C. Morgan went to Dayton, Tenn., last week, his old home, and will return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Underwood, of Stanford, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, near the depot.

Misses May Miller and Katie O'Connor are spending the Xmas holidays with Mrs. R. Green, of Fayette.

Mrs. Green, Ransom entertained the numerous friends of her daughters, in Lexington, Friday evening.

Dr. J. C. Morgan went to Dayton, Tenn., last week, his old home, and will return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Underwood, of Stanford, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, near the depot.

Misses May Miller and Katie O'Connor are spending the Xmas holidays with Mrs. R. Green, of Fayette.

Mrs. Green, Ransom entertained the numerous friends of her daughters, in Lexington, Friday evening.

Dr. J. C. Morgan went to Dayton, Tenn., last week, his old home, and will return to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Underwood, of Stanford, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, near the depot.

Misses May Miller and Katie O'Connor are spending the Xmas holidays with Mrs. R. Green, of Fayette.

The Francis-Schweinforth Case.

THE CLIMAX gave a brief account, last week, of the action of the Christian church, relative to Mr. L. E. Francis, an officer in that church. This week we give the proceedings in full. The report of the committee is as follows:

At a meeting of the official board of the Richmond congregation of the Christian church, held in the revenue office, November 17th, 1888, the following action was taken:

WHEREAS, After a full conference with Brother L. E. Francis, one of our Elders, we are persuaded that he holds some views regarding one Schweinfurth, of Rockford, Ill., which we regard as a fraud and an impostor, and which views we think disqualify him for the office of Elder, therefore,

Resolved, That while we differ radically from him in his views, we have a kind sympathy for him personally, and our disapproval is in his moral character and not in his views.

2nd. That we think he ought, in justice to himself and the church, to resign his Eldership, and we deem it our duty to ask him this to do, subject to the action of the congregation.

T. S. BRONSTON, J. B. NEWELL, W. B. SMITH, P. M. POPE, THOS. BALDWIN, ELSA ROBERTS, S. S. PARKES.

C. P. WILLIAMSON, Preacher. The committee having filed its report, Mr. Francis answered as hereunder set forth:

Beloved Fellow Members of this Church—I have somewhat to say unto you. I have for thirty-seven years been an officer in this congregation, and have endeavored, during all these years, to be a son of the Lord, in the accomplishing of good for God's people here. But now comes a communication from the other officers of this body requesting and demanding of me that I resign my Eldership—my official relation to you. My reply to this communication is addressed to you—the church.

